

I want to keep in place the rules that serve the public rather than private interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to even more media consolidation than exists now. On June 2 I urge you to retain the current membership rules.